Exception Days

There will be exception days when students will not need to wear the wardrobe, such as for holiday events and Names, Not Numbers® programs. Notification for these days will be given in advance. In those cases, please make sure that your child's dress is in accordance with the spirit of tzniut and the provided instructions. Additionally, every child should have a white shirt that is in wardrobe for special programming, such as Yom Ha'atzmaut.

Parents entering our building, thank you for respecting the spirit of the RPRY Wardrobe.

Ordering from French Toast

When ordering short sleeve shirts from French Toast, in order to have the mandatory logo affixed, you must click that option. We understand that this is an extra step, but it is a quirk of the French Toast website we are unable to circumvent. If you do not click the logo option, your shirt will not have a logo, and will not be in dress code.
